Date: Sept. 29, 2009

Time: 3:30-5pm (arrive no later than 3:15)

Register by: Sept. 8, 2009

Organizer: Trina Pywtorak

Location: PetCo Store in Front Royal, Crooked Run Shopping Center

Cost: FREE, but you must RSVP*

Age groups: Grades K-8

Details:

The Fur, Feathers & Fins program allows children to learn about the characteristics and habitats of fish, reptiles, birds, and small animals. At your local PETCO, lessons in science, math and geography come to life through this hands-on field trip. As students develop a respect for animals, they will also develop a greater sense of responsibility.

The FREE Fur, Feathers & Fins field trip will help children develop and enhance skills in:

- Basic needs for animal care
- Animal habitats and characteristics
- Environmental issues and animal survival
- Animal respect
- Reading and science

No drop-ins or last minute sign-ups allowed, so please RSVP right away!
Maximum of 30 participants.
